

Name: _____

1. List some ways that the forests were used in the past by the following groups:
 - a. Aboriginal Communities
 - b. European Immigrants
2. Describe the paradigm shift that has occurred in forest management in Newfoundland and Labrador over the past 100 years.
3. What is forest inventory? How is this information collected?
4. What is the annual allowable cut?
5. What is timber scaling, and why is it conducted?
6. List at least one way that modern bridge building technique aims to protect the river or stream environment.
7. From what do our forests need to be protected?
8. What was the main means of forest disturbance in Canada in 2006?
9. Why might a prescribed burn be used?

10. In what ways are insects a natural part of the forest ecosystem?

11. What is silviculture?

12. What is pre-commercial thinning? Why is it used?

13. What is scarification? Why is it used?

14. Why don't all harvested areas require re-planting?

15. Why might some areas of the province be re-planted with seedlings?

16. List two acts that may be enforced by Conservation Officers.
 - a.
 - b.

17. What is erioderma? Why are scientists interested in erioderma?

18. Why might moose pose a threat to the forests of Newfoundland and Labrador?